ABOUT THE HINDA INSTITUTE

Everybody Deserves a Second Chance

Our mission is to empower families affected by institutionalization, trauma, and crisis. Through support and rehabilitation, we foster resilience, restore relationships, and aid reintegration. We envision a future where everyone can heal, thrive, and build a more just, connected society.

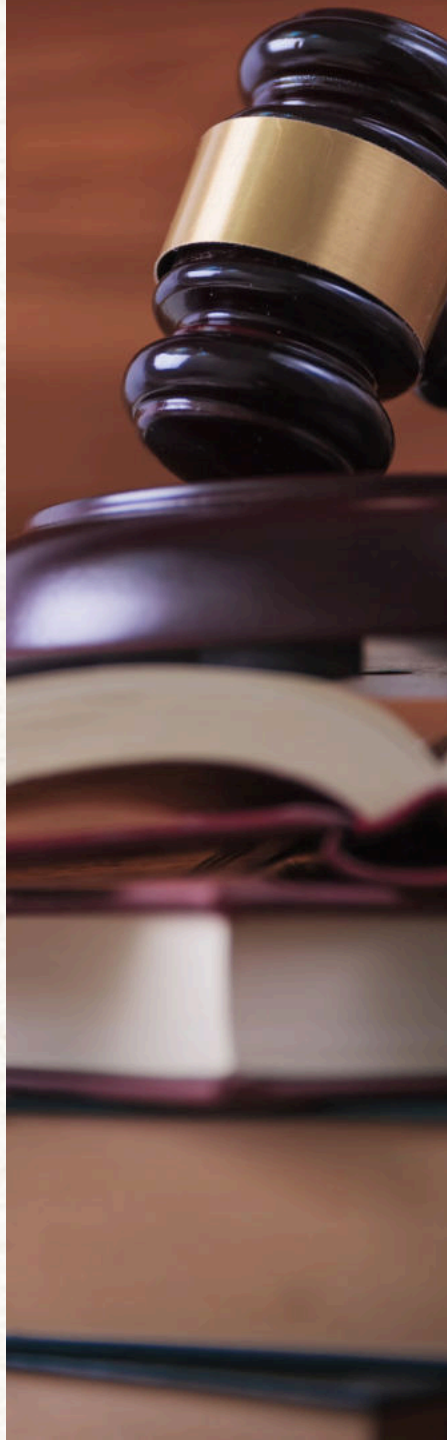

MARK WEINBERG, ESQ.

What are some of the cases you are working on?

- 1 Case challenging Wisconsin's practice of putting people on the sex offender registry who have never committed a sex offense;*
- 2 Case challenging Wisconsin law imposing GPS for life on people convicted of certain sex offenses even after they have completed their sentence and are no longer subject to any supervision;*
- 3 Case challenging parole restriction in Illinois prohibiting people on parole for sex offense from using erectile dysfunction medication; and*
- 4 Case challenging residency restriction in Rockford, Illinois, prohibiting more than one parolee living in same residence.*
