

ORGANIZATIONS

- NARSOL \(National Association for Rational Sexual Offense Laws\) — A nonprofit focused on addressing sexual offense laws believed to be unconstitutional, challenging public registration, proximity restrictions, and residency restrictions that extend beyond an individual's sentence.
- ACSOL \(Alliance for Constitutional Sex Offense Laws\) — Dedicated to protecting the Constitution by restoring the civil rights of registrants and their families, working through education, litigation, and legislation, primarily in California but also on national issues.
- Women Against Registry — Seeks to abolish registries and restore life, health, and freedom to individuals harmed by registration requirements, with a particular focus on the impact on innocent family members.
- Florida Action Committee \(FAC\) — Seeks to inform the media, public, and elected officials with facts versus myths about the sex offender registry, pursuing proven, effective measures in preventing sexual harm without compromising public safety.
- Once Fallen — A reference and resource site founded in 2007 that advocates for evidence-based prevention and treatment, dispels myths used to justify sex offense legislation, and provides free assistance to registered citizens and reformers.
- Iowans Unafraid — A volunteer, grassroots nonprofit devoted to making society safer while restoring the constitutional rights of those on the public sex offense registry.
- UV4SOR \(United Voices for Sex Offense Reform\) — An advocacy network connecting multiple state-level and national reform organizations.
- Advocates4Change — Focused on reforming punitive laws to ensure fair treatment and rehabilitation opportunities, with awareness campaigns educating the public and lawmakers on the challenges faced by individuals with sexual offenses.